2017-2018 College Admissions Profile

Overview of School

PPJSHS is a four-year high school located in Point Pleasant, West Virginia established in 1890. Committed to excellence, PPJSHS promotes respectful, responsible citizens dedicated to life-long learning.

Academic Program

Twenty four credits are required for the Class of 2017.

Advanced Placement

AP courses are offered in Point Pleasant Jr. Sr. High School, based on student request. We are constantly striving to increase the rigor of our school, and are pleased to show how we have increased our AP courses from four courses offered in 2011 to currently having 12 AP courses (in-house) in our curriculum for the 2017-18 school year.

Accreditation

PPJSHS was opened in 1890 and is chartered by the West Virginia Department of Education. Classes operate on either a block schedule of 105 minutes per day for a semester, or a year-long schedule of 50 minutes per day for two semesters.

Placement

In all academic areas the students are placed by WVGSA scores and teacher recommendation into Honors, AP, and General classes.
